According to the University of the Witwatersrand Research Office figures for 2004, the Graduate School for the Humanities (which comprised the Constitution of Public Intellectual Life Project, the Graduate Programme in Journalism and Media Studies, and the Forced Migration graduate and research programme) had the highest relative publication figures, viz 2.453 (pubs/ftes) and 2.404 (pubs/sles). The next highest in the university was the School of Public Health on 1.758 (pubs/ftes) and 2.033 (pubs/sles). The University average was 0.629(pubs/ftes) and 0.647 (pubs/sles). Accredited publications only.
Publications

*Designates DNE accredited publications. Please note that as the Public Intellectual Life Project we are committed to publishing in public interest media as well as accredited academic publications.

Finlay, A. “Introduction: (Re)claiming the Environment” in Global Information Society Watch Association for Progressive Communications, Humanist Institute for Cooperation with Developing Countries, Montevideo: Hivos, 2010.

Harris, V.S. “Against the Grain: Psychologies and Politics of Secrecy”, Archival Science 8(4-6), 2005.

Harris, V.S. “Record-keeping and Records Continuum Thinkers: Examining a Seminal Australian Text”, Archives and Manuscripts 33(2), 2005.

Harris, V.S. "Record-keeping and Records Continuum Thinkers: Examining a Seminal Australian Text", Archives and Manuscripts 33(2), 2005.

Mwale, P.N. "Communication Media, Mediated Publics, and Science Communication in southern Africa", (forthcoming).

